MEET THE CANDIDATES

Jaida Barrow

Daughter of Greg & Lorilyn Van Dyke

My name is Jaida Barrow, and I am the daughter of Greg and Lorilyn Van Dyke. I have two younger sisters: Poppy, an eighth grader at Sioux Center Christian, and Skyler, a first grader who lives in Maryland with my biological father, Drew. My dad, Greg, serves as the Vice President for Enrollment at Dordt, and my mom works as a population health nurse at Promise. I am actively involved in volleyball, serve as student council president, and previously participated in track. During my time at Unity, I have grown tremendously thanks to the support of my teachers, classmates, and coaches, and I am very thankful for the many opportunities I have been given to learn and grow. I plan to attend Dordt to play volleyball while studying kinesiology or social work. My favorite Bible verse is Ephesians 2:10, "For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do." This reminds me that I was created with care, intention, and with a purpose and given gifts to fulfill it!

Lily Bonnema

Daughter of Dan & Sarah Bonnema

My name is Lily Bonnema, daughter of Dan and Sarah Bonnema. My dad is a pig farmer, and my mom is a paraprofessional at OCCS. I have three younger sisters: Autumn is a freshman at Unity, Allison is a 7th grader at OCCS, and Haddie is a 4th grader at OCCS. We live on a farm outside of Maurice and attend Immanuel CRC in Orange City. Throughout my years at Unity, I have been involved in several activities such as cheerleading, cross country, band, student council, and being a living group leader. Outside of school, I enjoy staying busy with many things, such as spending time outside, baking, boating, ice skating, and hanging out with friends. After I graduate, I plan to attend cosmetology school in the fall. One of my favorite Bible verses is Ephesians 2:8, which says, "For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God." This verse reminds me that salvation is not dependent on what I do, but on what Jesus has done and God's grace.

Ellie Clemens

Daughter of Rob & Dawn Clemens

My name is Ellie Clemens, daughter of Rob and Dawn Clemens. My parents both work in healthcare. I have two older sisters, Abigail and Hannah. Abigail enjoys teaching first grade at Sioux Center Christian and is married to Koleby Van Beek. My favorite part of the past year has been spending time with their daughter, my niece, Hazel. Hannah is a sophomore at Dordt University studying nursing. My time at Unity has been fun and I enjoy being a class officer, living group leader, and cheering in the student section. These opportunities have given me the best memories and the very best of friends. I enjoy traveling, crafting, going on hikes and walks, boating, and hanging out with my friends. Looking ahead, I plan to attend Southeast Tech in Sioux Falls to become an Ultrasound Tech. A Bible verse I continue to lean on is 2 Corinthians 12:9, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." This verse reminds me to let go of control and lean on Him for strength in all things.

Aubyn Jansma

Daughter of Greg & Angie Jansma

My name is Aubyn Jansma, daughter of Greg and Angie Jansma. I have 2 brothers, Drew is a junior at Dordt and Hayden is a freshman here at Unity and we live in Sioux Center.

Throughout my years at Unity I have enjoyed playing volleyball and being a class officer and living group leader. Outside of school I enjoy going to sporting events, hanging out with friends, napping, and going to the lake. I am still unsure on my future plans but I hope to attend WIT community college to be a physical therapy assistant. My favorite Bible verse is Philippians 4:6-7 "Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your request to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus."

Chloe Vanden Berg

Daughter of Wade & Denise Vanden Berg

My name is Chloe Vanden Berg, daughter of Wade and Denise Vanden Berg of Sioux Center. I am the middle child of 5. My sister, Kayda, is married to Cole and is a senior at the University of Sioux Falls. My brother, Elliot, is in his first year at Southeast Technical College in Sioux Falls. My brother, Owen, is a junior at Unity, and my brother, Asher, is an 8th grader at SCCS. Throughout my years at Unity, I have participated in soccer, volleyball, living group leader, and class officer. Next year, I plan to attend Dordt University to major in Elementary Education. My dream is to someday teach 3rd grade! I have 2 favorite Bible verses. The first is John 3:30, which says, "He must be greater, I must be less." My other favorite is 1 Corinthians 10:31, which says, "So whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God." These verses are important to me because they remind me to give glory to God in everything I do and say and to keep God as my priority. I'm excited to see what the Lord has planned for me!

Dylan Bosma

Son of Beau & Erin Bosma

My name is Dylan Bosma and I have 3 siblings and 2 happily married parents. We live on the outside edge of Sioux Center in between Sioux Center and Orange City. My eldest brother is currently struggling at Iowa State in veterinary school, is married, and relies on the salary of an extremely smart and hard working banker Jenna. My medial brother is getting by at Dordt while my youngest sister is thriving at SCCS. My father is a veterinarian at Central Vet in Sioux Center and my mother is a super cool teacher that all the kids love at SCCS. I am involved in basketball, football, and baseball here at the U. I am also involved in the educational system here at Unity. I plan to attend Dordt University and play basketball there and room with my buddy Austin W (whom you will see later in the bulletin). My favorite verse is from Proverbs 16:3 and it says, "Commit to the Lord whatever you do, and He will establish your plans."

Joshua Campbell

Son of Stacia & Shawn Campbell

My name is Josh Campbell from Orange City, son of Stacia and Shawn Campbell. I have two brothers. Hunter, who has graduated from Unity and currently works at Sekisui in Orange City, and Christian, who is a 3rd grader at Rock Valley. During my tenure at Unity Christian, I've been involved in team sports like football and soccer. Along with sports, I am a living group leader, and I participate in the student section for other Unity sports teams. I currently do not know where I'm going for college, but I'm planning to go and major in exercise science or kinesiology. My favorite Bible verse is Matthew 19:26, which says, "Jesus looked at them and said, 'With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.'" This verse is very important to me because it's a great reminder of God's great and wonderful power and how he can lead me through any trial or tribulation.

Austin Hall

Son of Jacob & Amanda Hall

My name is Austin Hall, and I am the son of Jacob and Amanda Hall. We live in Sioux Center, where my mom is a dog groomer and my dad is a journalist and also coaches for our baseball team. I have three younger siblings: Tate, a high school sophomore; Josie, an eighth-grader; and Eli, a fourth-grader. At Unity, I have been involved in baseball and joined the basketball team this season. Both activities have been great opportunities to meet new people and use the gifts God has given me to glorify Him. Although I am currently undecided on where I am going to college, I plan to study exercise science and continue playing baseball. I am excited to see how God will guide my future. My favorite Bible passage is Philippians 4:4-8. These verses are a good reminder to live with joy and be thankful no matter the circumstances. Verse six says, "Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God." Especially during a time of life that can be stressful with decisions about the future, this passage is a great encouragement to me to trust God and allow His peace to guide how I think and live.

Naz Homziakov

Son of Maksym & Nataliia Homziakova

My name is Nazar Homziakov, son of Maksym and Nataliia Homziakova, and we live in Sioux Center. My dad currently works at Sekisui, and my mom stays home to care for our family of eight children, my father, and my grandpa. I have an older sister, Alina, who attends Dordt University, and two younger sisters: Marina, a sophomore at Unity Christian High School, and another sister who attends Sioux Center Christian School. I also have five brothers, including David, who is a freshman at Unity, and four younger brothers who attend Sioux Center Christian School. My family and I attend Peace Lutheran Church, which has played a significant role in supporting our family and accepting us here. Joining the football team was a crucial decision for me in both my social and personal life; it has significantly helped me form new relationships while improving my English skills. After high school, I plan to attend Dordt University or Northwestern College, where I hope to major in Cybersecurity while continuing to pursue athletics, including football and wrestling. My favorite Bible verse is Proverbs 16:3, which says, "Commit to the Lord whatever you do, and he will establish your plans," and reminds me to keep God first, because He is the one who calls us to grow together in faith and community.

Austin Wieringa

Son of Daryl & Cara Wieringa

My name is Austin Wieringa. I am the son of Daryl and Cara Wieringa and have 2 brothers. Trevor is a junior at Dordt University and Mason is a freshman at Unity. I have been involved in football, basketball, baseball, and track while at Unity. My future plans include attending Dordt University to play football and am currently undecided for what I am going to study. My favorite Bible verse is Joshua 1:9. "Have I not commanded you? Be courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go." This is my favorite verse because it reminds me that no matter what I am doing God is always with me.
